

Family Forum and Dementia Friends coffee afternoons are held regularly. This is an informal meeting where families can offer ideas and suggestions or raise concerns regarding activities and entertainment. We welcome any involvement and support from families with any of our social events or activities and our Activity Co-Ordinator is always available to give information.

Newlyn Court is also on Twitter. You can follow us to keep up to date with any social events and activities using @newlyncourt

